ONLINE TRIAL

Usual TDR® rules apply

Hosted by TALKING DOGS RALLY®

Open to all TD Rally® registered dogs!

If you have any questions please text or call Jacky Ruddock on 07875641116

How is this going to work?

This online trial is independent of live TDR® trials. Progression through the levels via Titles and Championships is separate from that of live trials. In the spirit of TDRally®, we trust that you do not over-rehearse rounds and ensure that you submit an honest performance. Good luck everyone!

Some of our competitors may also compete in Rally Online competitions run by other organisations and we are basing our trials along similar lines. On Mon 5th Feb the classes will be published on Facebook and on the Talking Dogs website. They will also be available by e-mail on request. Get the word out to your friends who do not use Facebook! There will be one class of each level including Veteran classes. Entries will be limited to 2 classes per team PLUS a Veteran class if you are eligible.

All courses have been designed by Jacky Ruddock for this trial and will be judged by other TDR® judges and Jacky!

Courses may feature fewer stations than those in live TDR®, in order to fit into the average back garden or driveway. You can use a tripod or put your camera or phone on a chair if you haven't got a handy helper in your household. There is no minimum size of ring but you must be able to flow when performing the stations.

Course laying – you may print off TD rally signs or write your signs on paper and use anything you like to keep them in place. We do need to see where you intend to perform each exercise so we know that the course is laid out correctly.

Filming – please ensure your camera or phone is in Landscape mode as this will make it much less likely that you go out of shot. It is essential that you remain in shot at all times, and that your video submission is one continuous piece of film. No submissions with any editing will be permitted.

Identification – please write clearly on a piece of paper your TDR® competitor number, the word 'BONUS' if you intend to do the bonus, and the course you are intending to work, so that we send your entry to the correct person. Hold this up to the camera, then work your round as usual.

When you have filmed your round, you should then upload to Youtube and email the link to

Lucy Dawson at lucy@luphen.co.uk

If your round cannot be verified for judging, for example if you have gone out of sight during the round or laid the course incorrectly, you will be offered the chance to refilm, until the competition has closed for entries. There are examples of filmed rounds at rallyonline.org so you can see the sort of thing we need to see.

Once the competition has closed for entries, we will pass the entries to judges to be judged the weekend of 24/25 Feb. We hope to have the results to post by the following Monday. We ask you to be patient if it takes longer, judges are busy people!

Entry fees

£3 per class entered. This includes a copy of your mark sheet along with a certificate (if a qualifying mark is awarded) which will be e-mailed to you.

If you would like qualifying rosettes as at live trials, these can be purchased and posted to you after the event at a cost of £3.50 each including p& p. Please order and pay for rosettes after the results have been posted.
