

Dog nose touch cone

- Cone is placed to the left or right, (dependent upon side dog is working), approx. 1 metre after the station.
- Dog and handler reach the station and the dog sits.
- Handler commands dog to touch the cone with his nose. The dog can touch any part of the cone.
- Handler calls the dog directly to the left heel position and the team continue forward.
- There is no present.